

Run Report Shower Cap Run.
( {Hares} Pussy Galore and Best n Less)
(Scribe Klinging)

OK so lets see, Shower cap run , Pussy and Best n Less, WHAT SORT OF F_CK UP will this be???. Get to the Pub, Only Miles O'toole and Tinkerbell can be seen under the pub awning, It was raining The start. Yep definitely shower cap weather. It was sort of raining, Hard enough to need a pretty cap like Brenguns 'Flower job', or the sporty version of the swimming cap I saw a few sporting jobs ready for the swim leg at Noosa ..Where is everyone one else ? Answer, everyone else was trying to stand under the Bottle shop back door awning, So what is the first rule of HASH ????

Snappy and Radar joined us under the big dry space, till the rain stoped , when all the crowd suddenly appeared must have been 30 Hashers under there all trying not to be Cosy. Not sure how Sperm Whale and Monty coped. GM Scruffy was in there also probably trying to get some order to proceedings with his magic coles hand..

So after the rain stopped, we all gathered waiting for the Hares to tell us about the run. Promises of 'Run of the YEAR', (unlikely) 'Best On-oN' (Even more unlikely). Well Pussy started lying , and it just kept coming, finished by some Best n Less lies also. "Easy to see marking", " only on one side of the road", and other bollocks of untruths. Anyway we all started with a gentle run down Arrol St. I saw the FRB's running away at an alarming pace. When almost the entire pack lead a turn left. Down hill, then up again I stopped half way down, and so the trail was lost (not for the first time over the rest of that night) an FT or a CB no one knew. Smart money like Scruffy and Miles plus Buggs, who must have started late, waited at the top of the intersection. Yep first false trail. So most of the pack got caught out.

Funny things happen when running around in hash, Multiple Choice with his eagle eyesight spotted the trail a quick right turn into a lane way to Laverack Park pity that in the packs haste they ran over the arrow. Both he and I found ourselves at the front, it's been years, should we run harder from now on. Nope fuc_ that. I can report that the pack ran past us , but such is life. NEVER underestimate the power of glasses, and his eyes to find the trail and the lower energy required for someone else to find the trail in future ...

Oh the hares like running up hills, so Buggs and Optus now at the front 'order was re-instated', we found ourselves crossing Stanley Tce, heading for the hills, The seven hills bushland reserve, After a few more checks and not a re-groups in sight. TinkerBell, Verbal Diarrhoea and Optus were persuaded to stop before we entered the reserve. From a starting pack of 30 + we were down to 15., Luftwaffer and Multiple gone and loads of others gone (SHORT CUTTERS) Miles O'toole was still around. Like a good trail master I had marked the trail lead by the FRB's didn't see the lost runners or back markers till I got back to the pub , must be a message in that for me??

Again Up hill into the reserve, we ran, this time the trail was paper, now a soggy mess on the ground, but easily seen. Couple of false trails on the sealed walking trail at the top of the hill, which kept the small pack together. We ended up running out near Bradbury St, a few more checks saw the pack again enter the bush land before Creek road, then for me it was basically HOME Towards the Pub. A few hardy soles went off looking for more trail, I think they were heading away from home towards a school, I expect running around in circles looking for non existent trail Shame about the rain. Verbal Diarrhoea and I headed for home, found the trail on the way back in.. Anyway the front runners got home about 1 hour 10, stragglers were 10 minutes adrift...

The circle was called behind the pub, The HARES were not put on ICE which was a shame given the trail was far too long... And they deserved a little pain ..Bren Gun rogered someone with his statue, (AGAIN), the seems to be a theme for him
Shit of the week Beach Ball ?? not sure maybe it was Radar
Run 6 /10 a bit too long and not enough Re-groups. Food well it was pub grub, and it was late , so not too bad 7/10
On ON Klinging