

Run Report-Mt Gravatt Hotel –Hare –Radar (5th March2014)

The “No Hills Run “ or “The Pushup Revenge Run”

As expected with a Radar run, a farqueup from the start-no hare to be seen as it got closer to runtime. Gm whispered in my ear , as he gave me the runreport duty, that Radar had just rung him to say he was “lost” and not able to get back in time to explain where the run went. So, GM Fnut did his best and said “just run up the hill fellas!”-so that’s what we did. Tinker led us out followed by Grewsum and Tightnut-a few false trails kept the pack together till we hit the bush. Here it spread out with the hills taking their toll-the FRT’s took a right up the hill where the real trail went left and this caused a split in the pack which didn’t get back together for about 15 minutes, when we eventually headed up to the first reservoir. A welcome regroup . I did hear Grewsum saying, when asked if we should wait for Lufty and others, “fuck them, they can catch up to us!”-nice! It was onon and then eventually hit the freeway and track up to the busstation and Uni grounds-suddenly Bugs appeared on the scene out of nowhere , trying to explain he got here late and had run flatout to catch up to us. A clever track through the Uni –up, up and up steps till we hit the bush on the other side.

The trail headed down at last , steep rocky slippery descent-think I saw one fall-Screw-about 10 in the pack at this stage. Trail was good but then detoured off into the mulga again with distant calls from Tinka who had raced ahead to locate the trail. Down down down until lights of a house welcomed us and a obviously a road. It was here Lufty and his half brother Multiple appeared out of the bushes-WTF! A checkback and no exit out to the road-it was backup the mountain to the second reservoir-a steep arduous climb, but a fast run back to the pub with Grewsum, Bugs, Optus and Scribe to get back 7.25.

Bit long Radar, but well marked, good checks, and regroup.

The circle started with Tightnut being nominated for SOTW by Chardarse for being disrespectful to the quantum of fees this year, Radar and Verbal being iced (just for being hares),Lufty for hiding the Hash toad (or 'fuckin frog' as Multiple called it) in his closet along with other interesting things, and Snappy of course (his usual trek to the ice) for going on Slops' $100million boat and telling everyone that it was just a pro-----fessional day out. No chicks-just pros!

Snappy took the title again-and has lost count of how many icings he has had this year.

Radar organized vouchers for food which brought the cost of a pie and peas down from $16 to about $11-not a bad feed after all.

Run-8 ( was a 9, but deducted 1 for going up the hill again)
